Numb. 7121.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday Auguſt 26. to Tueſday Auguſt 29. 1732.

Petersbourg, July 29, O. S.

YEſterday the Czarina ſet out from Peterhoff for Croſnagurk, which is about 30 Miles from hence, where Tents are pitched for her Majeſty to paſs the Night in; and this Morning ſhe is to ſee, from the Shore, her Fleet, commanded by Admiral Gordon, who is to exerciſe the Seamen in repreſenting a Sea-Fight; after which her Majeſty is to return the ſame Day to Peterhoff, from whence it is thought the Court will come back next Week to this City.

Warſaw, Aug. 16. Several of the Leſſer Diets of Great and Little Poland are broke up without chuſing Deputies to the General Diet. That of Czerko was very tumultuous, two Men were killed, and between 30 and 40 wounded. We have not yet had Accounts how they have ſucceeded in Lithuania or Poliſh Pruſſia.

Warſaw, Aug. 20. The King of Poland is expected in Town To morrow. Yeſterday all the General Officers and Colonels had the Honour of dining with him, and he propoſed reviewing To-day the Poliſh Infantry Man by Man, and to chuſe 100 out of each Regiment to remain here as a Guard for his Perſon. They are now encamped cloſe by his Majeſty's Quarters, but the Horſe are at ſome Diſtance, and within a Day or two will have Orders to march to their Winter Quarters. Since the Poles in ſeveral of their Dietines have ſhewn great Diſſatisfaction at ſo many Saxon Troops being here, beyond the firſt Number of 1200, which has been exceeded during the Camp by about 700, his Majeſty is reſolved to remove all Pretence of Complaint of that Nature in the approaching General Diet; therefore he has ordered all his Saxon Troops to return home, viz. two Regiments of Horſe, commanded by the Prince of Saxe Gotha, and Colonel Naſſau, and a Regiment of Foot commanded by Count Friſe, and they are to take different Routes, but their March will be very ſlow, having 36 Days allowed them from hence to the Frontiers.

Warſaw, Aug. 23. The Departure of the Saxon Troops, which are to return home, is put off for a few Days; and his Poliſh Majeſty has told the Imperial Ambaſſadour, that he would ſend him a Letter for the Emperour, deſiring leave for their free Paſſage through a Part of Sileſia. His Majeſty came to Town the 21ſt, after having choſen about 300 Men to remain here for his Guard, out of the Poliſh Regiments

Seville, Aug. 19. The Count de Montemar, who commanded in Chief the Spaniſh Forces employed in the Conqueſt of Oran, returned hither the 13th Inſtant, and had Audience the next Day of their Catholick Majeſties, who received him very graciouſly. A ſtrong Garriſon has been put into that Place, and the reſt of the Troops are ſent home in three Diviſions, one of which landed at Alicant the 5th Inſtant, another at Malaga the 7th, and there is no Doubt but the third Diviſion, which was ſent back to Barcelona, is arrived there before this Time. By our laſt Advices from Ceuta, a Body of about 5000 Moors was encamped at a ſmall Diſtance from that Place.

Mr. Keene, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at this Court, having complained of ſome Difficulties which the Garriſon of Gibraltar met with in being ſupplied with Proviſions from the neighbouring Coaſts of Spain, his Catholick Majeſty has thereupon been pleaſed to give the following Order to the Governours of the Coaſts of Andaluſia, Granada and Murcia.

" It being the King's Pleaſure that the " Town of Gibraltar be allowed to import " whatever Victuals and Proviſions may be " wanted for the Garriſon, provided it be " done